TDB 12/08 O-27

PRACTICE AID 0502

Deductible and Nondeductible Medical Expenses^a

This list (not all-inclusive) categorizes common medical expenses by deductibility.

Deductible Medical Expenses

Abortion (legal) Acupuncture

Adopted child, medical expenses of Alcoholism, treatment of

Ambulance

Animals (guide animals, seeing-eye dogs, hearing aid animals, etc.)

Attendant for blind or deaf student

Autoette (three-wheeled vehicle for the disabled)

Birth control pills

Body scans (full-body electronic scans)

Braille books and magazines

Breast reconstructive surgery following mastectomy for cancer treatment

Capital improvements to home (only excess of cost over increase in home's value)

Car with handicap controls or equipped to accommodate passengers in wheelchairs (to the extent of the cost of special controls and equipment)

Childbirth preparation classes (mother)

Chiropractors

Christian Science treatment

Contact lenses

Contraceptives, prescriptive

Cosmetic surgery (only for procedures that correct a congenital defect, personal injury, or a disfiguring disease)

Crutches Dental fees

Dentures

Diabetic supplies Diagnostic fees

Diapers (disposable), used because of severe neurological disease

Doctors

Domestic aid (type that would be rendered by a nurse)

Drug addiction, treatment for

Drugs, prescription (including alleviation of nicotine withdrawal)

Dyslexia, language training

Egg donor costs, including legal fees, hospital, transportation

Eye examination

Fertility enchancement

Fluoride device (on advice of dentist)

Glasses

Health club dues (prescribed by physician for a medical condition)

Health maintenance organization

Hearing aid

Hospital care, in-patient

Hospital services

Insulin

Insurance premiums (medical—except coverage of unnecessary cosmetic surgery)

Iron lung Laboratory fees Laetrile (legal use)

Laser eye surgery to correct myopia

Lead paint, removal of

Lifetime care—advance payments

Limbs, artificial

Lodging (limit of $50 per night per person)

Long-term care (qualified) services and insurance premiums

Medicare premiums (generally)
Nursing home (medical reasons)

Nursing services Obstetrical expenses

Operations (legal—except unnecessary cosmetic surgery) Optometrists Orthodontia

Orthopedic shoes (excess cost)

Osteopaths

Oxygen equipment for breathing difficulty

Physical examination Pregnancy test kits

Prosthesis
Psychiatric care
Psychologists
Psychotherapists

Radial keratotomy (corrective eye surgery)

Reclining chair (cardiac patient)

Remedial reading

Retirement home, lifetime medical care

Sanitarium rest home, cost of if for medical, educational, or rehabilitative reasons Schools, special for the handicapped Sexual dysfunction, treatment of Smoking-cessation programs Sterilization operation (legal)

Telephone, specially equipped for the deaf Television closed caption decoder for the deaf

Therapy received as medical treatment

Transplant, donor's expenses

Transportation, essentially and primarily for medical care

Vasectomy (legal)

Visual alert system for the hearing impaired

Weight reduction program to treat obesity or a specific problem directly associated to excessive weight

Wheelchair X-rays O-28 TDB 12/08

Nondeductible Medical Expenses

Abortion (illegal)

Adopted child, medical expenses of natural mother

Anticipated medical expenses

Aspirin for pain relief of injury (doctor recommended) Babysitting expenses to enable parent to visit a doctor

Capital expenditures to the extent they increase the value of the property

Car depreciation

Childbirth preparation class (coach)

Clothing that is suitable for use other than therapy

Commuting costs of disabled taxpayer Controlled substances (such as marijuana)

Cosmetic surgery (directed solely at improving the patient's appearance)

Deprogramming services

Diaper service

Dust elimination system

Ear piercing Electrolysis Funerals Furnace

Gender reassignment surgery

Hair transplant

Health club dues (not prescribed by physician for medical condition)

Health savings account payments or distributions

Household help

Hygiene supplies

Imported prescription drugs

Insurance (accidental loss of life, limb, or sight; loss of earnings during periods of disability; or unnecessary cosmetic surgery)

Lyposuction Marijuana

Marriage counseling

Maternity clothes

Medical expenses of surrogate mother and unborn child

Medical savings account contributions or distributions

Medicines and drugs from other countries

Nonprescription drugs and medicines

Nutritional supplements

Operation (illegal)

Residence, loss on sale resulting from medically recommended move

Scientology audits and processing

Self-help Tattoos

Teeth-whitening due to age

Toilet articles

Trips, general improvement of health

Vacations, restoration of health

Veterinary fees

Weight loss program to improve appearance

Note:

^a See Chapter 25 for a discussion of medical expenses.